Holy Shepherd Lutheran Church will be holding an artist exhibition on Saturday, June 30, from 4:00 to 7:30 p.m. in Gregersen Hall. This exhibit is raising funds for Habitat for Humanity who is building a group house for six veterans in Dixon, CA. Artists are invited to bring up to 5 paintings to be exhibited with 25% of the sales going to Solano-Napa Habitat for Humanity's Dixon Veterans Build. If artists prefer to use their own booth, they will be allowed to set up outside the building entrance and bring unlimited artwork. There will also be a silent auction held that day. If you would like to donate artwork for the auction, you are encouraged to do so.

To be part of this opportunity to show your work and help our vets, please return the request form which can be located in the entry to CFM to: Bob Schwab, c/o Holy Shepherd Lutheran Church, 433 Moraga Way, Orinda 94563.

If you know an artist who would like to be a part of the exhibition please have them contact Bob Schwab 925-254-6869 or Diana Yorgan dyorgan@comcast.net.

The weekly news inserts are available on the church's website every week - go to www.holyshepherd.org and click on Weekly News.

Dear Pete and the members of Holy Shepherd Lutheran Church,

Thank you for your generous donation!

We're so grateful for the wonderful handmade fleece blankets you sent at the end of February. People often take simple things like basic clothing, personal care items, or cozy blankets for granted -- until you don't have them. Please know how much our patients appreciate your support. Because of your kindness, together with other compassionate and patriotic people like you, we have been able to touch the lives of many thousands of patients and their families over the years. We couldn't do this without you!

Thank you again for your continued support of our brave troops transitioning through Landstuhl hospital. We, and those we serve, deeply appreciate your generosity.
