

COME HOLY SPIRIT
fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the
FIRE OF YOUR LOVE
Send forth your Spirit and they shall BE CREATED.
And you shall renew the face of the earth.

Read the Bible to be wise,
Believe it to be safe,
Practice it to be holy.

For Next Week –
Sunday, May 12, 2019

Read: “Paul’s Mission”
(Acts 13:1-3, 14:8-18)

Recite: While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.” — Acts 13:2

Reflect:

- In the reading this week, we hear that “the Holy Spirit said, ‘Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul (Paul) for the work to which I have called them’” (Acts 13:2). The two had gifts and talents equipping them for that work. Who have you known in your life that felt particularly gifted for the work of ministry? How has their work touched you?
- One of the promises we hear in the writing of Saul (Paul) is that all of us are gifted in some way for the work of ministry and the building up of the body of Christ. What talents and gifts is God manifesting in your life these days for the work of that ministry?

Pray: God who calls and sends, your Holy Spirit is constantly calling to us. Some may be called to be pastors or preachers. Others may be called to positions of leadership and responsibility within the church. Some are gifted to be extravagantly generous givers. Others are called simply to be willing workers. Do not allow us to overlook that all are called. Equip us then to grow in faith and practice so we may respond in love and willingness to serve you and others. We pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.

The Women's Book Group will meet at 10:00 a.m. in Gregersen Hall on Saturday, June 15 (please note this is a date change).

All are welcome. Please contact Alison Kling for any further information.

The book selection for June is "Beneath a Scarlet Sky" by Mark T. Sullivan. This is a story of a young Italian during World War II who joins an underground movement to help Jewish people escape after his home in Milan is destroyed. Forced to enlist as a German soldier, he becomes the driver of an important German general. This gives him the opportunity to spy for the allies. His love for the Jewish widow he met in the underground movement bolsters his courage and hopes for the future.

The next meeting will be July 27 and more information will be forthcoming.
