I'm not sure Santa is accustomed to being asked for toilets for Christmas, but for women in labor, and after delivering, it's a pretty wonderful gift (though too large for a Christmas stocking).

The Bible in James 5:16 tells us

"Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective." Asking for God's help through prayer is one way we as Christians can connect with heaven and heaven can connect with us. At Holy Shepherd there are many ways in which we share prayer concerns and celebrations. Most of you already are aware of the Prayer List that is part of the weekly bulletin. Requests for prayers to the printed list can be made by contacting Linda Hudak at lkhudak@yahoo.com, or by calling Lisa at the church office.

In addition to this written list, prayer concerns are also shared via a Prayer Chain. Prayer concerns/celebrations to be included on the Prayer Chain are communicated to Lisa, who then posts them by email to a list of those individuals who wish to be part of this prayer group. If you would like to be a "link" on the chain, please contact Lisa by email at lisaverley@holyshepherd.org, or call the church office, 254-3422. Likewise, if you have a prayer concern, would like to share a prayer celebration, or be removed from the prayer list, please contact Lisa.

Many thanks to Angela Ainsley, Donna Gamel, Pete Johnson, Jerry Perry and others who have come by the church on their own time to trim, clip, pull weeds and clean up. We are so grateful for your efforts. Please come back again -- there is always work to do !

Marla Schroeder
