From Pastor John:

As most of you know our beloved sister in faith, Pearl Gregersen, passed into the merciful and loving arms of our Lord last evening at about 10:30 pm (Thursday, November 7.) Pearl's daughter Ann related that the past months have been wearing to our beloved Pearl, and that she was just 'worn out.' We will cherish memories of her can-do spirit, her enthusiasm, her bright smile and her amazing hospitality, and rejoice with her that she has now joined the heavenly cheering section. God is good -- and was good to Pearl for 101 years -- and IS good to her even now. Thanks be to God for the life of Pearl Gregersen, and for the full embrace of holy love which came to her last evening. There will be a Memorial Service for Pearl at 11:00 a.m. November 23 with a reception following in CFM.

Worship Attendance 11/10: 69 @ 9:30 a.m.

Merry Christmas

I want to thank our Altar Guild for sharing their creative talents with all of us. We were blessed that Belle Lindskoog found just enough pumpkins to make our decor.
Special thanks to

Louise Harpham, Tracey Blanchard, Juanita Gilbertson, Reni Yasuda and John Heidt's help always. Hope this adds to the Thankfulness in your world.

Blessings, Elaine Nielsen
